Music continued!

(DDU) Didgeridoo Down Under is a high-energy, Australia-themed show that combines music, culture, puppetry, comedy, storytelling and audience participation.

(AFJ) In the Aussie Funk Jam, participants learn how to play the didgeridoo -- including vocalizing and creating simple rhythms -- using our beginner instruments. It's cool, funky and unique! Kids and teens ages 8 and up; limited to the first 40 participants.

(Pink) Howard Pink & His Musical Garden Hoses astounds the audience by playing a number of fun instruments including his famous musical garden hoses!

Storytelling!

(HSC) Hampstead Stage Company will perform American Folktales & songs or Treasure Island!

(Porta) Porta-puppet Players bring fairy tales to life!

(Manga) Learn how to draw and tell stories through manga! (Teens)

Magic!

(Noel) Magic, yo-yos, juggling, and comedy with Matt Noel! (Kids and Teens)

(Royes) Irwin Royes, the World's Smallest Magician!

Animal Encounters!

*(Animal programs are best for children ages 3 +)

(Aqua) AquaVan - Bring the excitement of the Audubon Aquarium into the library!

(Bug) Bugmobile - Close-up encounters with bugs!

(Wet) Wetland Express - Learn about and meet wetland animals!

(Zoo) ZOOmobile - Up-close animal encounters!

Movement!

(Hoop) A fun and interactive hula hooping program with Hey Now Hooping!

(Yoga) Kids Yoga! - Kids are invited to participate in a yoga class designed specifically for kids!

Music and Sound!

(Sci) Mad Science will rock the library with exciting demonstrations and experiments focusing on sound!

(Rick) Musician Rick Kelley puts on a high energy musical show!

(Dulc) Mike Anderson the "Dulcimer Guy" presents "Songs and Stories."

(Judy) Songs with Miss Judy!
